TOM THE TEMPTER.

"Oh! Daddy, please!"
"I am afraid I couldn't, Dick. You must remember that you are only a little man, and that broncho is very frisky."

"I know, dad, but Tom got a pony for Christmas, too, and he can ride anywhere he chooses."

"You forget that Tom is 12, while you are not yet ten. I am willing that you should ride when William can go with you, but you must not go alone."

So young Dick Wilmer tried to be contented, although there was a sore spot deep in his heart. All of his chums rode, and not one of them had to have a horrid man trotting along behind. It wasn't right that he should be treated like a baby, when he was fully as tall as Tom and the other fellows. No one could guess that he was nearly three years younger. He went sorrowfully out to Broncho's stall, and put his own curly head against the soft dark mane of the young thoroughbred.

For several weeks after his father's mandate had gone forth, Dick turned a deaf ear to all of Tom's entreaties, and endeavored to forget the neat little footman while dashing through the long, winding country roads. But a day came when all of Dick's good resolutions were thrown to the winds.

It was Saturday. Mr. Brown, his tutor, had just left the house, and the lesson books were put away until Monday. So, with a free heart, Dick bounded downstairs, hunked on his high riding boots, slipped into his heavy coat and set his scimitar cap well back on his curly head. Mr. Wilmer had gone to Washington on business, and Mrs. Wilmer was out calling. Dick knew by experience that it would probably be dark before she would return, and it was too lonesome in the house. Even Mr. Brown, who had been expected to stay, was telegraphed for, as his wife was taken suddenly ill.

So when left alone Dick ran down to William's room, over the stable. His hand was on the knob, and he opened his mouth to call the groom. Just then Tom's mocking voice cried:

"Go on, baby, call your nurse!"

Dick wheeled around, his deep blue eyes all ablaze with indignation.

"I am not a baby, and you know it, Tom Stimer."

"Then why do you always have him," pointing a disdainful finger toward the closed door, "tagging after you? When you are a man you'll have a keeper, I suppose."

"I won't have you talking that way to me. I'm not a baby, and you know I don't want William—and I only have him because dad said I must!" cried Dick, sturdily.

"Don't you ever expect to have a mind of your own? I dare you to go to-day without him!" taunted Tom.

"Dad said I mustn't."

"William isn't there; he went out just as I came in, so he can't go, and you know Henry is driving your mother's horse."

"What shall I do, then?" Dick stood for a moment debating. It was a glorious day, cold and clear, except for a heavy bank of clouds slowly rising in the north. It was too lovely to stay stuffed up in the house all the afternoon.

"It won't hurt you. I'll take care of you, and we'll only go on the nearby roads. Come on, Dick," tempted the visitor.

"I ought not to," said Dick, slowly. It was so hard to refuse, for he wanted so much to go.

"Do as you like," said Tom. "I am going." And he carelessly threw himself on the waiting pony.

Just at that moment a low, sorrowful whinny came from Broncho's stall. That decided Dick; he would not be gone long, and he would be very careful—oh, very careful.

At first his conscience pricked him a little, but once out in the soft, warm sunshine, and galloping swiftly down the long roads, he forgot his scruples and never before had he enjoyed a ride so much. It was strange that neither of them noticed when the sun sank behind the clouds until they were completely covered with a soft white veil of snow.

"Come, Tom, let's hurry home," called Dick, frightened at the thought of the hour.

"It's jolly now—I am not going until the ground gets covered," laughed Tom.

"I tell you it's going to be a bad storm. I am going home now, Tom, and you can come when you please." Dick wheeled his horse around as he spoke, and galloped in the opposite direction.

"(H. I say, Dick, come back!" called the older boy, but he was already out of hearing. I am shivering like a leaf and ride mostly on.

It was dark when Mr. Wilmer reached home and found his wife in tears, and nearly wild from anxiety. It was bitterly cold, and already the snowfall was quite deep.

Between her wife Mrs. Wilmer told him that Broncho had just come home with the saddle turned.

Mr. Wilmer did not hesitate an instant. There was only one boy with whom Dick could have gone, and very soon the anxious father was catching a Tom Stimer.

"Dick hasn't got home yet?" Tom asked, a terrified look coming over his face.

"No. Did you make him go?"

Tom looked down. There was no use in denying it. Suppose Dick was lying hurt or frozen in the woods.

"Yes, sir; I asked him to go, but I didn't think it would hurt," said Tom, slowly.

"Come with me, sir, and show me where he left you," commanded Mr. Wilmer, sternly.

It was not an easy task, for the blinding snow made them almost lose their way in the most familiar roads. Hours were spent in the search, and Mr. Wilmer, Mr. Stimer, their servants and the neighbors looked on as they were discouraged.

Suddenly a joyful yelp from Dick's dog, a great mastiff, brought the half-frozen band together, and the dim lantern light shed a faint red glow upon a small figure, lying half buried in a drift, while beside him, with head drooped, stood the mastiff.

Tenderly the father lifted his unconscious boy and carried him home. No one suffered as much as Tom during the doctor's consultation, huddled up in a little heap outside Dick's door. Hours wore by, and still no sound from the room. At length the door softly opened, and the kind old family physician came out.

"Why, Tom, what are you doing here?"

"Is he—is he—dead?" sobbed Tom.

"No, my boy; he is very much alive, and in a few weeks he will be as well as you are. Was it you who took him?"

"Yes, doctor," said Tom, manfully; "I despise myself for it; he didn't want to go, and I taunted him into it. I am much older than he is, too. Don't you think he will always hate me?"

"I think, on the contrary, that you and Dick will be better friends than ever. You have learned that the way of the transgressor is not an enviable one," remarked the old doctor, sagely.

And the doctor's prediction came true, for in their boyhood, university and manhood days Dick Wilmer and Tom were inseparable. — N. Y. Tribune.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers; they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unstable heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits.

By all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
THURSDAY, Feb. 4, 1904.

Our Candidate for President,

WM. RANDOLPH HEARST, OF NEW YORK.

The political outlook indicates that W. R. Hearst will be the Democratic standard bearer and Mark Hanna the Republican flag-bearer. Some people laugh at the idea that either will be the nominee of his respective party. Mr. Hearst is gaining ground so rapidly that no man or number of men will be able to defeat him at the final convention, while Mr. Hanna is good to be nominated by acclamation. Roosevelt's Panama policy has queered him with the rabid of his party and in his appointing negro office-holders to power in the south he has alienated the conservative element.

A Cure for Eczema.

My baby had Eczema so bad that its head was a solid mass of scabs, and its hair all came out. I tried many remedies but none seemed to do any permanent good until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The Eczema is cured, the scabs are gone and the little one's scalp is perfectly clean and healthy, and its hair is growing beautifully again. I cannot give too much praise to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Frank Farmer, Bluff City, Ky. In buying Witch Hazel Salve look out for counterfeits. DeWitt's is the original and the only one containing pure Witch Hazel. The name E. C. DeWitt & Co. is on every box. Sold by all druggists.

Pays Two Years In Advance.

MARYSVILLE, CAL., Jan. 23. Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky. Dear Sir: Enclosed find $1.00, for which please send me THE HERALD. You see by this that my postoffice address is different from when you last heard from me. I have been here at Marysville about three months in the hotel business. I send one of our cards so when you come to the town of Marysville give us a call. Yours truly, E. E. HAYS.

Escaped An Awful Fate.

Mr. H. Haggins of Melbourne, Fla., writes: "My doctor told me I had consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by all druggists. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

From Down In Kansas.
ARKANSAS CITY, KANSAS, January 27th, 1904.

Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky. Dear Sir: Please find the herewith to recompense you for one copy of THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD for one year. I have neglected for sometime renewing my subscription, hoping to get a list of the names of the Kentuckians who live near here to subscribe for THE HERALD. But I have failed in the effort, and for fear you will stop my paper I now send my subscription. We have just had a visit from Geo. H. McClain, formerly of Hazel Green, and now a leading real estate agent of Stillwater, Oklahoma, and of Mark McClain, Shreveport, La. We read many good things in THE HERALD of our old friends and relatives, among them the announcement of Spencer Cooper for State Senator from that district. If that office has to be filled by a Democrat we will be glad to see Spencer Cooper elected. With best wishes for your success, I remain, truly yours, F. M. VAUGHN.

Better Than Gold.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicine I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

Two In A Lump.

STILLWATER, O. T., Jan. 26, 1904. Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky. Dear Friend Spence: Find enclosed $1.00, for which you will please send a couple of your HERALDS, as we understand they are 50 cents each. Send one to John Linden, Stillwater, O. T., and the other to Geo. H. McClain, Stillwater. If we are misinformed in regard to the price let us know. But send the papers. Respectfully, GEO. H. MCCLAIN.

Relief in One Minute.

One Minute Cough Cure gives relief in one minute, because it kills the microbe which tickles the mucous membrane, causing the cough, and at the same time clears the phlegm, draws out the inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts. One Minute Cough Cure strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia and is a harmless and never failing cure in all curable cases of coughs, colds and croup. One Minute Cough Cure is pleasant to take, harmless and good alike to young and old.

Wants a Sample and Price.

ACADEMY, W. VA., Jan. 26. Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky. Dear Sir: Please send me a copy of THE HERALD as a sample, and tell me the subscription price of the paper. I would send the money for the paper now but I do not know the price. Yours truly, SAMANTHA C. COLLEY.

On Thursday last Taylor Elam fell from a low scaffolding around the Masonic building and broke his right leg above the ankle. Dr. Nickell was there at the time and set the limb, and the patient was doing as well as could be expected.

Don't

Think because you have taken many remedies in vain that your case is incurable. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured many seemingly hopeless cases of scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism, kidney complaint, dyspepsia and debility.

EZEL DOTS.

Tom Christian, who was recently stabbed by Sam Dennis, of Ezel, is slowly improving.

Sam Wilson, the painter-poet, has completed the painting on the residence of John Goad, of near this place.

John Goad, an expert builder and contractor, is putting up a fine residence for Joe Ward, two miles from this place.

In this vicinity the blue birds are chirping and the tom-tits are warbling, which denotes that the hardest of the winter is about over.

Will Haney, who has been a renter on John Goad's farm for the last three years, recently moved to the Steve Rose farm on Lacy creek.

Kelso Murphy has exchanged his store with James Little for a farm on Bryant branch, known as the Doe Murphy farm, and $1300 to boot, on Monday last.

Robert Bartley had the misfortune to have several toes of his left foot crushed into pulp by a wagon load of wheat passing over them while doing some hauling in Virginia.

Sam Wilson, of Hazel Green, has secured four or five jobs of painting for the spring, as there is no painter here since the death of Mr. Lumpkins. Sam may conclude to make this place his stamping ground.

PARSNIPS.

An Early Riser.

A strong, healthy, active constitution depends largely on the condition of the liver. The famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers not only cleanse the system but they strengthen the action of the liver and rebuild the tissues supporting that organ. Little Early Risers are easy to act, they never gripe and yet they are absolutely certain to produce results that are satisfactory in all cases. Sold by all druggists.

MAYTOWN MISSILES.

Millard Richie was out of town on business Saturday.

W. M. Linkouse, of Grassy Knoll, went to West Liberty on a flying business trip Saturday.

R. A. Childers has purchased the R. B. Bolin property, which is a great addition to his town farm.

J. W. Childers bought of M. W. Pieratt a fine harness mare; price private. Uncle Wash is certainly a good judge of horseflesh.

G. L. Ward purchased of R. B. McClure 25 acres of timber land on the Flat Rock fork of Blackwater for $350. George is a hustler.

The smart set here had to show off last Saturday night by shooting off their guns just after the services at church. Boys, you should be very careful how you shoot in town; you might kill your best friend.

Lewis Hylton, of the firm of Lyon & Hylton, who recently sold their stock of goods in Maytown to Clark & Co., has completed his splendid new dwelling on his farm and moved to it. He is one of the go-a-long kind.

Quite a number of the farmers all around here are cutting their white oak timber and converting it into staves and ties. With a few big rains it will not be long until they will also be scarce of soil as well as timber.

Line Henry has sold his farm near here to George Phipps, and is making arrangements to go West to live. We regret to give up him and his estimable wife, but our loss will be some other country's gain.

THE Toledo: Blade, TOLEDO, OHIO.

NEW PRESSES, NEW STEREO-TYPE PLANT, NEW AND MODERN APPLIANCES IN EVERY DEPARTMENT, AND ENLARGEMENT OF BUILDING TO FOUR TIMES ITS PRESENT SIZE.

BEFORE the close of 1902 the Toledo Blade will be installed in its new building, with a modern plant and equipment with facilities equal to any publication between New York and Chicago. It is the only weekly newspaper edited expressly for every state and territory. The News of the World so arranged that busy people can more easily comprehend than by reading cumbersome columns of dailies. All current topics made plain in each issue by special editorial matter, written from inception down to date. The only paper published especially for people who do or do not read daily newspapers, and yet thirst for plain facts. That this kind of a newspaper is popular, is proven by the fact that the Weekly Blade now has over 175,000 yearly subscribers, and is circulated in all parts of the United States. In addition to the news, the Blade publishes short and serial stories, and many departments of matter suited to every member of the family. Only ONE DOLLAR a year. THE BLADE, TOLEDO, OHIO.

THE NEW YORK WORLD Thrice-a-Week Edition.

Read Wherever the English Language Is Spoken.

THE Thrice-a-Week World was a brilliant success in the beginning and has been steadily growing ever since. This is the test of all things, and has set its seal of approval on the Thrice-a-Week World, which is widely circulated in every State and Territory in the Union, and wherever there are people who can read our mother tongue.

This paper for the coming winter and the year 1903, will make its news service, if possible, more extensive than ever. All events of importance, no matter where they happen, are reported accurately and promptly.

The subscriber, for only one dollar a year, gets three papers every week and more news and general reading than most great dailies can furnish at five or six times the price.

The Thrice-a-Week World is absolutely fair in its political views. Partisan bias is never allowed to affect its news columns, and Democrats and Republicans alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political campaigns.

In addition to news, it publishes first-class serial stories and other features suited to the home and fireside.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers.

We offer this unequalled news $1.50 paper and The Herald 1 year, for

Impaired Digestion

May not be all that is meant by dyspepsia now, but it will be if neglected. The uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, sourness of the stomach, and disagreeable belching may not be very bad now, but they will be if the stomach is suffered to grow weaker.

Dyspepsia is such a miserable disease that the tendency to it should be given early attention. This is completely overcome by

Hood's Sarsaparilla which strengthens the whole digestive system

THE HERALD.

We hope to have a printer this time next week, and henceforth shall give our patrons a much better paper.

Dentist Harlan Stamper left on Tuesday for Lee City, where he will be professionally engaged for about three weeks.

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla is the medicine for impure blood, eruptions, weakness and general debility—it positively and absolutely CURES.

We have received a lengthy letter from Richmond DeBusk, of Port, Oklahoma, which we hope to publish next week.

Dock Hicks and Jo in Greenwade were here Tuesday, en route to their home at Frenchburg. They had been at Campton court.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Greenbury Robinson was on Saturday arrested by United States Deputy Marshal Mays, charged with fracturing the revenue law by disposing of liquor for which he had not the necessary license, and he was taken to Jackson for a hearing.

Miss May Chandler, who has been aid-de-camp to our better seven-eighths for several months, left yesterday for home at Mariba, and the illness of her father may require her to stay. If you know of a girl we can hire please send her to us.

Dr. Andy Nickell being in Lee City last Thursday he was called to officiate at the birth of twin babies to the wife of J. Buck Hollon, one of which was born dead, and the other died in the course of a few hours. One was a boy and the other a girl.

I. R. Hollon, H. H. Stamper, J. W. Halsey, J. M. Reynolds, G. A. Bolin, Amos Creech and W. G. Asbury, of Campton, passed through our town Tuesday evening en route to Lee City, where they that night instituted an encampment of I. O. O. F. with 32 members and returned home next morning.

Emory James will sell his household and kitchen furniture, 10 bee stands, some farming tools, corn, &c., on Saturday next, and soon thereafter leave for Bushton, Ill. To the people of their prospective new home we take pleasure that we can commend them as quiet, unassuming citizens and neighbors with whom you will be pleased to a point of praise.

Aunt Julia Ward received a letter from her son Henry, at Cedar Bluff, Va., in which he says three graves were dug in one day at that place. One was the grave of the mother of W. P. Cecil, one that of a child accidentally burned to death, and the third one for the remains of a Mr. Cruet. The letter said he was a brother of Will Cruet, our fellow-citizen, but that gentleman's son was in town Tuesday and said his father had only the one brother, John of Grassy creek.

Have You Indigestion?
If you have indigestion Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure you. It has cured thousands. It is curing people every day—every hour. You owe it to yourself to give it a trial. You will continue to suffer until you do try it. There is no other combination of digestants that digest and rebuild at the same time. Kodol does both. Kodol cures, strengthens and rebuilds. Sold by all druggists.

H. C. REYNOLDS.

Bennie S. Harper writes us quite a lengthy letter from Gravis, Tex., notifying us of his father's death. John S. Harper died on the 7th of January, 1904, and the young man wants us to norate in a three column letter. But there is too much obituary for the amount of news.

Mrs. Em Lacy was accidentally thrown from the wagon Saturday while en route to Campton, and two wheels passed over one of her legs, bruising it considerably but breaking no bones. One the horses also stepped into her hand, the shoe cutting an ugly gash.

Sick Blood

Feed pale girls on Scott's Emulsion.

We do not need to give all the reasons why Scott's Emulsion restores the strength and flesh and color of good health to those who suffer from sick blood.

The fact that it is the best preparation of Cod Liver Oil, rich in nutrition, full of healthy stimulation is a suggestion as to why it does what it does.

Scott's Emulsion presents Cod Liver Oil at its best, fullest in strength, least in taste.

Young women in their "teens" are permanently cured of the peculiar disease of the blood which shows itself in paleness, weakness and nervousness, by regular treatment with Scott's Emulsion.

It is a true blood food and is naturally adapted to the cure of the blood sickness from which so many young women suffer.

We will be glad to send a sample to any sufferer.
Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Mysterious Circumstance.

One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health uses Dr. King's New Life Pills to maintain it. By gently arousing the lazy organs they compel good digestion and head off constipation. Try them. Only 25c. at all druggists.

Our paper is short of home news this week, which is unavoidable because we have no help in office or house. Our house girl was summoned home on account of the illness of her father, our better seven-eighths is confined to her bed, and to attend both house and office is more than we can do.

STILLWATER SPARKLES.

Ye scribe was visiting in Breathitt county last week.

John Hurst, of Pear Tree, was on Stillwater Sunday.

Mrs. Corn and Miss Rossina Tutt are visiting on Gillmore.

Died, on the 29th ult., infant child of Kelly Banks and wife.

Dewitt Taylor, that ladies' young man of Campton, was here last week.

Quite a crowd from here has been attending the meeting at Laurel the past week.

Willie Taylor went out Sunday and was seen in company with one of Stillwater's fairest.

Mrs. Laura Tackett, whose illness has heretofore been mentioned in our letter, is still very ill and is not expected to live.

A large crowd of youngsters gathered on the head of Stillwater Sunday and passed the day with the the greatest of pleasure, the crowd being made up of ladies and gentlemen.

There has been quite a lot of moving here the past week: Mrs. Maggie Combs moved into the house on her farm which was vacated by Breck Hounshell, David Kidd taking possession of the property vacated by Mrs. Combs, and Tom Steele moved to where Kidd moved from, Breck Hounshell going to the head of the creek.

LEE CITY LOCALS.

R. A. Dunn has three children with the measles.

Henry Bryant has a bad case of measles but is some better.

The Widow Dunn has an aggravated case of phthisis, but is some better.

John Click's baby, which has fever, is some better at this time but still very sick.

Jim and Price Rose visited their best girls at J. W. Taulbee's Saturday, returning Sunday.

Deputy Marshal Mays and R. A. Dunn arrested Charley Caskey, of Morgan county, for moonshining.

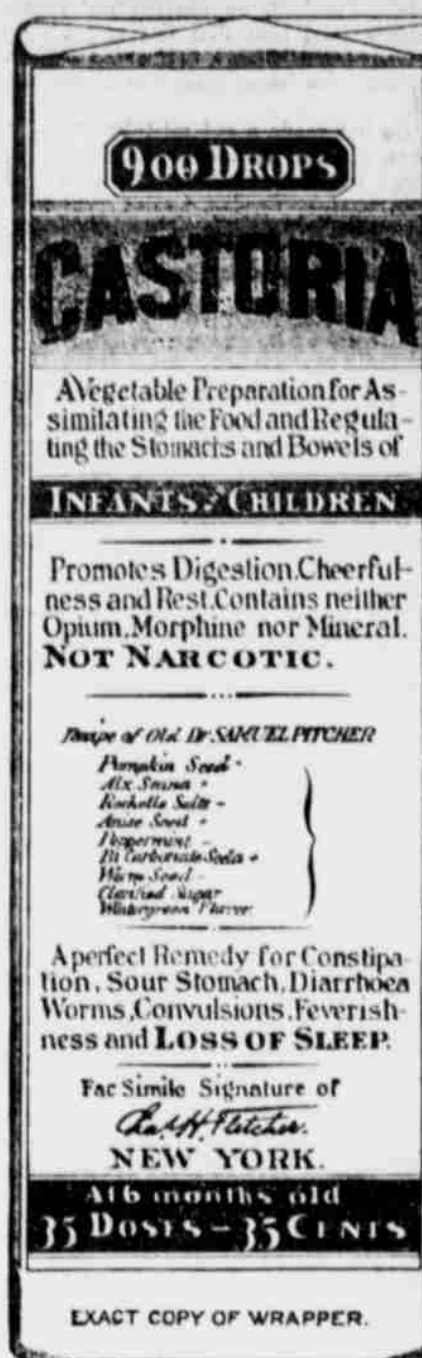

Tricky Tom Tharp, who was shot by Mat Sloan, is walking about the house and beginning to eat.

David Miller and Clyde Curry, of Lee City, visited their best girls Saturday and returned home Sunday.

Deputy U. S. Marshal W. W. Mays, with R. A. Dunn, of Lee City, arrested Greenbury Robinson at Hazel Green.

Nearly Forfeits His Life.

A runaway always ending fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Omer, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for burns, bruises, skin eruptions and piles. 25c. at all druggists.

State College of Kentucky.

THE AGRICULTURAL AND MECHANICAL (State College) College of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Physical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post Graduate studies are also provided, leading each to a Master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers more than 50 professors and instructors.

COUNTY APPOINTEES receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and lights, and if they remain 10 months, traveling expenses.

The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern.

The Legislature appropriated $60,000 for a College home for young women and $30,000 for drill hall and gymnasium for men. The latter is completed and in use, the former will be ready for occupancy in October.

Military tactics and Science are fully provided for as required by Congress.

Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the College to supply. Last year the matriculation list was 604.

Summer Schools are provided for Pedagogy, Engineering and instruction in Science.

Specialists with the necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of Natural Science.

The State College of Kentucky, though bearing hitherto the title of COLLEGE, is the only institution in the Commonwealth doing, in any proper sense, University work.

The completion of the College Home for young women will provide facilities for good board and lodging. It is equipped with all modern conveniences including bath rooms and room for physical culture. It will be heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is afforded to them of a thorough education in Classics, Modern Languages, Literature, Science, Mathematics, Logic, Metaphysics, History and Political Economy. No other institution in the State offers advantages for the education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK and POULTRY MEDICINE

Stock and poultry have few troubles which are not bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition. Prominent American breeders and farmers keep their herds and flocks healthy by giving them an occasional dose of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine in their food. Any stock raiser may buy a 25-cent half-pound air-tight can of this medicine from his dealer and keep his stock in vigorous health for weeks. Dealers generally keep Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine. If yours does not, send 25 cents for a sample can to the manufacturers, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

ROCHESTER, GA., Jan. 30, 1905.
Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is the best I ever tried. Our stock was looking bad when you sent me the medicine and now they are getting so fine. They are looking 20 per cent. better.

TWO COON STORIES.

"It's funny," said Deacon W. H. Neap, of Chester, N. Y., "how I found out in what part of the country Jim Bennett had been on one of his trips. Jim doesn't often go on trips, except in warm weather, when snakes are out and are ready to let him discover something new about 'em. But this time the season must have been pretty well along for Jim and folks were gathering their chestnuts where he was."

"He was driving along, thinking how lovely nature was and yet how queer. He didn't tell me where it was where he was driving along, and he came to a man working away in a field like all possessed, with a pick and shovel. Jim Bennett says he stopped and hollered to the man."

"Hello, neighbor! Short a' meat, eh?"

"The man quit digging and leaned on his pick."

"No," said he, hollering back at Jim. "I dunno as I'm any way short o' meat."

"Then Jim says he hollered back at the man."

"Why, you're digging to get a ground hog out, ain't you?"

"The man hollered back at Jim:

"No, I ain't diggin' to get a groundhog out. I'm diggin' to get a coon in."

"Digging to get a coon in?" he says he hollered. "Why, that's kind o' queer, ain't it?"

"Maybe it is and maybe it ain't," the man hollered back at Jim. "That's accordin' to how folks look at it."

"But where's the coon?"

"Come over here and I'll tell you," the man hollered back at Jim.

"So Jim says he tied his horse to the fence and went over into the field where the man was. The man leaned on his pick and looked at Jim awhile and then said:

"The coon is dead!"

"Jim Bennett says this gave him a real start, because he thought he was face to face with a crazy man; but he stood his ground, and the man said:

"I'm digging his grave."

"Then the man proceeded with his talk, and Jim says it wasn't long before he found that the man wasn't crazy, not by a jug full, but was simply a kind and observant citizen, relating strange facts."

"Yes, sir," the man said to Jim Bennett, according to what Jim tells me, "he was a coon among coons, and I'm going to plant him here because he was so all pervadin' smart that he deserves to have a gravestone. He made one sad mistake to be sure. I didn't want him to go out after the chestnuts. The boys was to blame for his goin'." And I'll lick old Jim Carter till he can't see first time I run ag'in him."

"My boys is full of action and vim, and they move around this district consider'ble githerin' apples and chestnuts and such, like boys with vim generally does. Jim Carter has got a chestnut tree on his place, Jim's name, that beats all the trees I know of, and my boys always give a hankerlin' after that tree long about this time o' year, but Jim Carter keeps his eye on 'em, and my boys have got to put up with a good deal o' botherin' to him if they let their hankerlin' for that tree get the best of 'em."

"I've got a spy glass at home, a slammin' good one. Jim Carter he lives a mile from that chestnut tree o' hisn, but he keeps comin' toward it every chance he gets to see if it's been tampered with; so what does my boys do but take to luggin' that spy glass with 'em and sweepin' the country with it, so if Jim is comin' from any direction they kin see him long before he gets within any sort o' sight o' them, and kin keep on givin' 'em chestnuts till he gets too close for it to be safe for 'em."

"This mornin' that coon o' mine, after he had rocked the baby to sleep and fed the chickens and the pigs," so Jim Bennett tells me the man said, "took down that spy glass and started out. Now, I didn't know this then, or I'd a' found out more about it, and either stopped the coon or give him some pints. But I know it now."

"He took that spy glass 'cause he had been with the boys durin' one or two of their hankerlin' trips, and went over to Jim Carter's tree chestnuttin'." He chestnutted and chestnutted, sweepin' the country every now and then with the spy glass to keep track o' Jim."

"He seen Jim by and by comin' toward the tree. But that coon kept on chestnuttin'. He kept on chestnuttin' so unfortunate long that Jim Carter got there and loaded him with a half a dozen buckshot, and the coon came out of the tree dead."

"He has made a sad mistake, smart as he was. He had been sweepin' the country through the big end o' the spy glass. Of course, that made Jim Carter look more than a mile away when he wasn't 50 yards from the tree, and—well, this is that coon's grave, and I'm goin' to plant him in it."

"Jim Bennett says that was more than he ever learned about coons before, and he was glad he had stopped and talked to the man. Jim drove along and by and by, he says, he came to a nice, smart little village, where everything looked prosperous and pleasing, except one tall, stoop-shouldered, neglected-looking man who was going down the street with a yaller dog at his heels. Jim gazed after the man kind o' pryin', he says, and another citizen, a spruce, jolly-appearing individual said to him:

"That's Sam Fleming. And a real decent, good actin' citizen he would be, too, if it wasn't for that one bad fallin' o' hisn. He hunts coons."

"Jim Bennett says he couldn't say a word."

"Every night Sam and that yaller dog o' hisn is out huntin' coons, Jim says this citizen said, sorrowful as could be. 'And he skins 'em, and nails them skins to his barn door till you'd think he was runnin' a tanyard. And he eats them coons!'"

"I don't think of it! Now, we all like Sam, and we've been doin' all sorts o' things to try and shame him out of that fallin' o' hisn, but we can't seem to do it. Now, if he'd only let somebody's coons, or seal a sheep, we might do somethin' for him. Then we could take him up and send him some where they'd keep him out o' harm's way."

"There's one more thing we're goin' to try. If that don't shame him into reformin', then he'll have to move some'ters else. He'll have to move!"

"Jim Bennett says he asked the man what they intended to do to Sam Fleming next."

"What be we goin' to do to him?" said the man. "Why, say, we're actin' goin' to elect him to the legislature!"

"When Jim Bennett told me that, I was surprised and said:

"Why, Jim, how could that be? Men strain and struggle and buy things to get elected to the legislature, and take look up to 'em!"

"Yes," said Jim. "Some places they do, I know. But this was the Pennsylvania legislature."

"And that's how I come to find out what part of the country Jim had been on his trip in. And very likely he learned a whole lot more about coons, but that is all he told me." N. Y. Sun.

Is the Laborer Worthy His

To the Democrats of this Senatorial District, greeting: I am a candidate for the office of Senator from this district, subject to the action of the Democratic party, and ask all Democrats to weigh well my claims. For nearly 20 years I have been a citizen and a voter at Hazel Green, and by reason of my position I believe I can safely say I have done as much, if not more, for the success of the party than any man. In the time I have never scratched a ticket and all in all I feel that I am not asking above my dues. Then, having become a mountain man, I have on all occasions taken pride in silencing slanders about mountain people, and in this I know I deserve the gratitude of a much-maligned people. Hoping you appreciate my past services sufficient to merit your continued confidence, and praying your support, I remain,

Truly yours,

SPENCER COOPER,
